Polar Plunge - A Great Way to Greet the New Year!

59 people
came to cheer!
7 people took the plunge!

Another gorgeous day blessed us as we rang in the New Year with brunch on the beach and a polar plunge. And in turn our community blessed the Highline food bank with 153 lbs of food and a whopping $272 dollars of cash donations. This is especially impressive when you realize that attendance this year was only 53 people, down from last year's all time high of 89! Last year we donated 210 lbs and $210 dollars. We owe this year's success in part to a generous donation by the ALSC president, Lonnie Goulet, who joined us this year! Thanks Lonnie! It was fun to see you there; now next year we would love to see you jump in the lake!

This year everything went smoothly because so many people stepped up to help. It was for me the chilliest, chilliest beach brunch ever. Thank you all!

The raffle was held before the plunge this year so no one froze waiting for their lucky number to be called. Sherry Yapp won best costume yet again, sporting a Husky Rose Bowl Television. You all seriously need to step up and challenge her winning streak next year.

Several people won prizes generously donated by: Cedarbrook Lodge in SeaTac, Wild Birds Unlimited in Burien, Ultimate Solution Hair Salon in SeaTac, Paws in the Park in Normandy Park, Blessings Bouquet at 206-949-5607 in Angle Lake and Maven's Mercantile in Burien. Starbucks in Normandy Park went above and beyond donating 100 cups of coffee and a huge selection of their fabulous pastry. Azteca donated a warm platter of mixed bites that were quickly devoured and Trader Joes gave us dozens of gluten free cookies.

Please visit these businesses and tell them we appreciate their support of our community. Next year I will be calling on you to ask your favorite businesses to donate something for our raffle. Most places are happy to support us in our effort to replenish the food bank. I have 'ask letters' you can give them. SEE THE GREAT VIDEO Val made of the day at <http://www.anglelakemanor.com>

The Monarchy Still Reigns

Yet again the Manor will be under the reign of Queen Tani Rae as no one stepped in to usurp the throne. This was preceded, once again, by the gift to me of a Queen cup by Chris Simmons. I'm becoming suspicious that her cups are foretelling my unending servitude! No more, please! At least all officers (bless their hearts) agreed to help rule for another year. We will serve you well in 2019, but your support is commanded, demanded, pleaded for and appreciated.

You can support us by hosting meetings, coming to meetings (the second Thursday of every other month), passing out flyers, helping greet new neighbors, paying your dues now, volunteering to help at and attend our 4 major events: the July 4th parade, NNO potluck, Cup O Cheer & Polar Plunge.

Cup o' Cheer - Laughter, Great Food and Good Company

Fran Reid graciously hosted the Cup o' Cheer party again and put us all in the holiday mood with her beautiful decorations. We missed Dale this year dearly, but we toasted him and shared the joy of friendship as he did with us so many years. The manor club kept the cheer flowing with a plentiful bar and the food everyone brought was delicious. The white elephant gift exchange was the best ever. I can't remember the last time I was surrounded by so much laughter and mirth.

National Night Out (NNO) Against Crime Potluck

NNO was a jammin' great time as we had 2 top notch musicians show up accidentally. We hadn't actually hired them, but a misunderstanding brought them to us for an hour of great entertainment. Everyone recognized how good they were and filled a tip jar to thank them for the show. It was such a fun time I think we should hire a musician for the next NNO. If you know of someone, send me their name and let's discuss at the next meeting. To hear how good the American Roots Music of Ben Hunter & Joe Seamons was check out Val's video at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6OaUSpQtUzY>

Farewell to these Beloved Neighbors

In the last year we lost longtime neighbors and friends: Nancy Lindquist, Nancy Wallace, Alan Titus and Dawne Friesen. Jean McGarah lost her daughter, Ann. Terry Baccus lost his brother. If you know the families left behind, send them love. If you know of anyone who has passed or who is suffering, let us know so we can support and help where possible. Contact numbers are on the front under 'Officers'.

Our City Responds

Did you know you can give feedback to or ask questions of the city as easily as submitting a comment online? You can do it anonymously or not. I commented about lake pollution and received a phone call the next day! It was lake scum which had dissipated as did my fear of an oil spill in our precious lake.
